Northern Librarians Hear Inspirational Talks

Librarians should call themselves missionaries believes Miss M. Sherlock, librarian of the University of Alberta.

She was addressing 22 community librarians who this week are attending a four-day course at the University of Alberta Extension department.

The librarians all come from points in northern Alberta.

In her welcoming address Miss Sherlock said she felt they were doing very important work in Alberta.

"If Canada is to become the great nation that we know it will be, it must have a strong cultural base ready to play an intelligent part in it. Books are the weapons for this," she declared, speaking on "The Library and the Community."

Library services should be on the same basis as educational services. "Really, it is an educational service," she commented.

She spoke of the lack of libraries in many smaller communities and

Canada's Produce Needed By Israel

Reclamation Of Desert May Bring Trade In Citrus Fruits

Canadian wheat, dairy produce, lumber and agricultural machinery are needed by the new state of Israel.

Consul for Israel, Arlo Ben-Tovim stressed here today the importance of Canadian-Israeli trade relations.

Mr. Ben-Tovim is making his first tour of western Canada since he was appointed to the Israeli consulate in Montreal in July 1948.

Born in Jerusalem, he was educated in the Hebrew College there with post-graduate courses in universities at Paris and Strasbourg.

During the recent war in Palestine he served as shipping officer at general headquarters of Israeli army with rank of captain.

TEN MILLIONS
Purchases from Canada by the Israeli state in the past year were valued at more than $10,000,000, the consul said.

Canadian wheat forms the bulk of imports from Canada, the state having bought 35,000 tons in 1949.

Because Israel is having a tremendous influx of population, she has to buy heavily of foodstuffs, lumber and machinery, all of which Canada can supply, Mr. Ben-Tovim said.

In two years more than 40,000 persons have poured into Israel which now has a population of about 1,250,000 compared with a pre-war total of 680,000.

RECLAMATION
Great efforts are being put into projects to reclaim the southern Negev desert.

When this part of the country has been made productive it is hoped the country will be able to establish a more favorable balance of trade through exports of citrus fruits and textiles, the consul said.

Practically all recent arrivals in Israel are placed on the land. Mr. Ben-Tovim will address a meeting sponsored by the Edmonton Zionist Council in Talmud House hall this evening.

Tomorrow afternoon he will be honored guest at a luncheon in the hotel space sponsored by the Zionist Council.

Car Owner's Arrival Blocks Theft Attempt
William Davidson, 1945-51 Buick, reported an attempt to steal his truck last night.

When he approached the truck, parked in a lot near Jasper on the south side, he found two men standing outside it and a third in the cab field. He told police. He found one ignition wire had been cut and an attempt made to start the engine.

Life's Darkest Moment

U-Turn Rule Often Has Opposite Effect

Recently I saw two motorists avoid the latest example of the U-turning rule at the end of one of the boulevard streets. They broke the traffic law, but they didn't cause a moment's hesitation in the streams of traffic moving across the intersection from all directions.

I also saw a motorist who was patting the law by swinging around the centre of the intersection in order to U-turn. That motorist snarled up the traffic for 10 minutes.

It has been pointed out that the police will prosecute infractions of this rule about 10 times a day. That is unfortunate that he is called upon to enforce a law that is so stupid it creates a traffic hazard each time it is obeyed.

The reason is very simple. A U-turn that takes a vehicle around the centre point in the intersection results in it crossing lines of traffic from all directions. A U-turn which is made at the edge of the intersection, without actually entering it, does not cross any lines of traffic at all.

No Cutting Into Cross-Traffic

The vehicle simply moves along the left-hand side of the road, then U-turns into the left-hand lane turning the opposite direction. It doesn't cut into the crossing traffic at all.

If you notice some of the motorists who follow the U-turn rule, you will find them making U-turns between intersections and they can slip from the north-bound side to the south-bound side without the slightest difficulty.

That rule is used in Ontario because it avoids crossing lines of traffic. The local laws compel one to cut across traffic.

There has been a complaint that traffic piles up at points where there are traffic lights.

No Cheer In Idea Of Two With Pay

Yesterday the office boy looped around with the holiday list. All around the office you could see the convulsive little shoulders, the flicking of dry lips, the deep frown and the eyes that were suddenly realize that once again they face the ordeal of another vacation.

Some of the younger members of the staff were looking at the golden industry of youth, brightly and noticeably.

The office weatherbeats, from duties on the list, I noted, were the same. The members of the staff grunted and put their hands and dates on the list, the doorman men signing their own exemption papers.

The Hazards Are Many

As I scrawled my own signature on the dossier I caught myself going over quickly the contents of the medicine cabinet, thinking to myself that we are in a Shanghaï where I, too, am old and decrepit.

It is not a well known fact, almost every woman today looks like a husband only as a workmate.

In the good old days, woman had a home for her man. Now all they can think about is to have fun. If they are not having fun, they are in a bad way right off the bat, they talk about divorce.

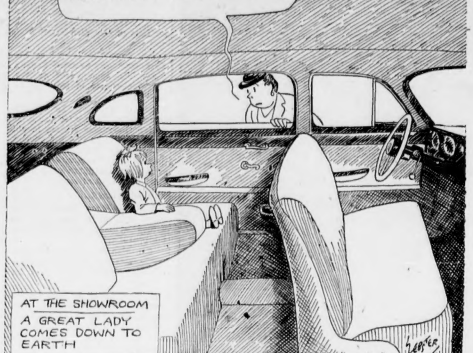

The average man is satisfied with very little—a man is a born idealist.

Probably the worst holiday I saw was a woman who was sort under either I seemed to be in the heart of the annual summer picnic for two solid weeks, briskly running three-legged races with complete strangers.

I recall that on returning to civilization I had noticed a man for my vacation but third degree burns, 10 stitches in my thigh and a small blue ribbon saying "Third Prize."

Probably the worst holiday I saw was a woman who was sort under either I seemed to be in the heart of the annual summer picnic for two solid weeks, briskly running three-legged races with complete strangers.

Letters to the Editor

Victoria Day

Editor, Bulletin—Just as sure as the 24th of May comes around each year there is always a certain element who trot out their annual forecast—"It will be a wet day as usual, it always is."

It may be wise thinking, or a form of propagandist's device for the Royal Personage for whom we celebrate on this occasion.

It is a forecast that never fails and endures of a little latent spite. This year was no exception to the rule.

Some seven years ago, who positively had no affection for our Royal family, remarked on the effect these "Old Queen's" birthdays.

It will surely rain as it always does on the 24th of May, which it did not on this occasion. Out of this I decided to keep a record for the next few years, for Edmonton only, with the following results:

1945-1 A little chilly, bright and clear.
1946-A real hot day. No sign of rain.

1947-Light showers all day.
1948-A most beautiful day for a holiday. (River rising slowly.)

1949-Weather was quite fine. 1950-A little frost early morning, day turned out bright and breezy. A lovely holiday after a cold rough day on the 23rd.

Workers V. Employers

Editor, Bulletin—Isn't it about time that employers of labor and representatives of labor should cease their constant bickering and set down for a few quiet hours to meditate on the effect these quarrels and labor upsets are bound to have on the city?

I am much about the ground. Don't you think it's a sad time this? When the flowers are beginning to die, and the pretty little singing birds.

Down to the south do fly. The merry brook is frozen up, and the sun goes down as soon as the night comes and the children are cold and shivering. They sing a mournful tune.

—F. H. IRVING, Grade 7, Spruce Avenue School.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

BY JOHN HOLINSKI AND DAN SCOTT

TODAY'S QUESTION: Do you think that Edmonton has enough swimming pools?

PEGGY SEATH, 9715-102 street, Ok: No, at the present time with only three pools in the city a person can hardly swim for all the children who are in the city. Why not build one especially for the young children?

S. LANK, 128 Exhibition Grounds, salesman: I think there are enough pools in the city, every time a person goes to a pool, they are crowded. No there are not enough pools in the city, every time a person goes to a pool, they are crowded. No there are not enough pools in the city, every time a person goes to a pool, they are crowded.

It Can Often Cause Trouble

But when you have vehicles involved at the edge of the intersection and moving into it from different directions at the same time, the result of the rule is bound to cause trouble.

In the case of this particular intersection, the obvious solution would be to place 160 vehicles around 121 and 134 streets so that instead of a long line of traffic making a left turn across the south-bound traffic as the case, the west-bound traffic could use 121 street and then cross 124 at right angles with the light. That would remove about 80 per cent of the difficulty at that intersection.

In other cases, however, it would seem that tremendous improvements could be worked if Edmonton followed the lead of some of the older centres and established a rule, where lines of vehicles are to cross each other's path, they must give the right-of-way alternately.

Under this rule, one or two vehicles which are waiting at a light, one or two of the other line crosses while the first line waits.

This rule has been used in some of the older cities with great success, but it has been proven so useful that in such cases it is not a matter of self-interest, but a matter of safety.

The second reason to believe that many of the old rules are out of date.

There are two jobs to be done. One is to patrol streets and see that the traffic rules are followed. The second is to determine what traffic rules should be used and to see that they are followed.

Back Road Looks Good

My wife and I spent a delicious happy week at a place, carefully watching ourselves each morning in the last open space left on the beach by eight million fellow-vacationers. Only a severe infection in my big toe, which had been opened by a barnacle, forced us to return home where we spent the remaining week quietly in our back yard.

In fact, the more I think about it, that back yard looks better and better. If nothing else, it's at least a safe distance from an emergency ward.

RAF Variety Of Pub Crawl For Charity

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England. May 30. (Reuters) — Spectators stood open-mouthed yesterday as 25 strong men raced through the sedate old-world streets of this Thameside resort pushing baby carriages.

The real eye-openers were the perambulators — passengers — muscular, stouff "males" who transpired encouragement to their "jockeys".

Police recruited traffic and kept the crowds on the sidewalks as the 25 bulky competitors lined up at the starting point for the arranged race of the year.

The contest, run for the benefit of the RAF Benevolent Fund, drew a crowd fully as enthusiastic as the one that gathers here for the annual regatta. The rules were simple but gruelling.

PUBS OBSTACLES

Each of the horizontal entrants had to dress as a baby—as far as he could—stretch out on his "pram," and be pushed around a mile-and-a-half course by his equally-weighted "jockeys" who were an old-fashioned nurse's ankling skirt.

Obstacles to be cleared were six "pubs" where baby and nurse each had to gulp down a pint of beer before galloping on.

Along the route, supporters went through the crowds collecting for the fund, which provides financial aid for RAF veterans in distress.

Parallel Seen In Red Dean

LONDON, May 30. (Reuters) — The Daily Express in an editorial today compared the attitude of the government in the Red Dean, who is in London for a "Peace Rally" to that of the United States government to the Dean of Canterbury, who was denied transit through the United States on his way from Australia.

"Robeson, an American citizen, is freely allowed to enter Britain to preach Communism," the newspaper said.

"On no account should the American government be criticised for taking whatever measures it thinks necessary to safeguard American security. But on every account it is fine that Britain should lead the way in tolerance."

Dr. Hewlett Johnson returned last week from a Canadian lecture tour during which several anti-Soviet demonstrations occurred.

Earlier they attended the first meeting of a new group formed by inmates of the Saskatchewan penitentiary. The group has the backing of the prison warden and the approval of federal authorities.

Moose Jaw Driver To Stand Trial For Killing

MOOSE JAW, Sask., May 30. (CP) — Thomas Grant, 45-year-old city bus driver, yesterday was committed for trial on a charge of murder in the gunshooting death of Wm. Wilhelms. He, Magistrate G. R. Trethewey, ordered the commitment after a three-day preliminary hearing.

Hartel, 36-year-old painter, was found burned and shot to death April 23 in a ditch six miles south of here. Grant, who had been a pallbearer at his funeral, was arrested a week later and a 22-calibre sawed-off rifle was traced to him.

Doctor Warns Of Mental Slump In Older Pilots

CHICAGO, May 30. (AP) — A Mayo clinic doctor Monday urged that periodic mental check-ups be required for air transport pilots because many now have reached the older age brackets where depressive mental states appear.

Persons suffering from this condition, said Dr. Maurice N. Walsh, can become suicidal or homicidal.

"It would be interesting, indeed to know the psychiatric status of pilots involved in the recent crash," he said.

Walsh, a physician said in a talk prepared for the Aero Medical Association.

Cotton Magnate Gets Four Months Prison

BOMBAY, India, May 30. (Reuters) — S. B. Sekaria, multi-millionaire cotton magnate, was sentenced yesterday by the city magistrate here to four months imprisonment and a fine of 80,000 rupees ($18,000) for contravening cotton textile control orders. Passing sentence the magistrate remarked: "Profiteers are pests of society and profit upsets the poor and needy."

Dean Born In Calgary Travels By Helicopter

LONDON, May 30. (CP) — Not many Britons ordinarily pay much attention to the doings of academic personalities, but during the last week millions have read about the "helicopter dean."

This handling Oxford don who can't wait on slower and less-accommodating transport is Dr. John Lowe, a 30-year-old Canadian-born in Calgary, who left the University of Toronto's divinity chair to take up a post as Dean of Christ Church, Oxford, and later vice-chancellor of Oxford University.

Dr. Lowe constantly is in demand as a speaker at all manner of functions.

When word got around the university campus last week that the dean couldn't spare the time to Oxford's apries.

Poles Hemmed In By Reds; May Day Musters 900,000

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Daniel De Luce, Pulitzer prize-winning young reporter of the Associated Press, now stationed in Berlin, has just returned from a visit to Poland. The following is a part of a series incorporating his observations behind the Iron Curtain.)

By Daniel De Luce

WARSAW, May 30. (AP) — Political geography casts a red hue over Poland.

She is surrounded on land by the Soviet Union, Soviet-occupied Czechoslovakia, and Soviet-occupied East Germany. Her oil sea coast is the Baltic.

A partisan of 60,000 Soviet troops guards the vital East-West communications inside the country.

Polish defence is in the hands of a Russian marshal with dual citizenship.

Whiskies on the west are slammed shut in all phases of Poland's life.

The government and the Communist party are as one. Under the pseudonym, "Polish United Workers," the party has 1,500,000 members. It controls 24,000,000 Poles.

The Polish-Soviet Friendship Society boasts a membership of 2,642,000. A Communist-affiliated Youth Association numbers 1,125,000.

OTHER ARMS, TOO

Under red banners, 900,000 Poles marched on May Day in four cities. They were armed, the Communist party said, "with the invincible weapons of Marx, Engels, Lenin and Stalin's idea, united by alliance and friendship with the great Soviet Union." They had other arms, too.

The Polish intelligence security police are estimated at 200,000. About 60,000 are plainclothes agents.

In Warsaw coffee houses, disillusioned Leftists of the intelligentsia quip: "We live in the heart of the world where lying is obligatory. In the other half, lying is according to preference."

SIDCUP, Kent, England. May 30. (AP) — For 25 years Norman Butler did free plumbing for an old friend, Mrs. Annie Skinner.

Time Out

By DICK BEDDOES

WIN, PLACE AND SHOW

Blowhard Beddoes' Bits and Balleads:
Since the horse racing season opened in Calgary, your reporter has discovered that there is an element of risk involved in the selection of winners.

And, despite the advice of my turf adviser, sometimes referred to in bourgeois circles as a bookie, I frequently find myself picking winners but getting no losers.

But a putting pal of mine, Paddy the Plunger, has recently discovered that there's a connection between a horse's form and his food. He divided the following table which shows how certain delicacies can forecast a horse's behaviour.

Food	Result
Grain	Horse is feeling his oats.
Radishes	Will repeat.
Spanish onions	Good at long distances.
Pickles and pineapples	Horse no good in overnight events.
T-bone	Watch this horse in stake.

And speaking of the food habits of banglitis, it comes to mind that Oil Capital, three-year hopeful this season, prefers a fatty meal of boiled pigweds to anything else.

Whichever, winner of the Turf Trinity or Triple Crown in 1941, liked doughnuts.

Myself, I don't care what horses eat, just so long as they eat up the track.

THREE DOT STUFF...

A visitor to our town today is Bob Clarke, coach of that fine pack of hounds which represented Grande Prairie in the Bulletin Golden Gloves last February...

Game officials from all over the west will talk about such things as birds and bees at the annual Dodge Unlimited conference in Calgary this weekend. Edmonton residents who will attend the meeting are Rennie Harley, D.C. chief for Alberta, and E. (Bud) Brown, president of the Alberta Fish and Game league...

The propaganda department of the Jack Bergey-Mitchell Klimentov boxing partnership is as relentless as a suspicious mountaineer from the hills of Tennessee these days. But it develops that they may not stage a card on June 8 involving Al Martini.

Martini will soon sever his relationship with Tom Cleary, but becoming free to box for Harry Means while, Phil Palmer is expected to return to Edmonton this week after his recent joust with one Eddie Heilm in Vancouver.

Ernie Farr, boxing bigwig in Calgary, is angling to get Irish Jimmy Nolan a crack at the Canadian welterweight title in early autumn.

Edmonton sporting den enthusiasts, Norman Lee, Bob Barragan, Pat St. Peter, Bill Majeau, et al., will be in the field this weekend, then on to Drumheller in a fortnight and to Calgary within three weeks.

Whatever became of Leo Furman?

Storemom Cop 5th Straight

Posters in the South Side Intermediate Football league's my & Navy won their fifth game without a defeat this season by trouncing Panthers 34 at South Side Athletic ground last night.

For the cellar-dwelling Prudham squad, it was their fifth straight defeat.

Home runs by Sparks Miller and Bill Stary paced Army and Navy to their victory. Miller, in his only official trip to the plate, blasted his round-tripper in the eighth frame with a mate aboard.

Stary's homer drove in Stan Elise and Jack Sharkey to highlight a four-run fourth inning. Prudham left fielder Ken Griffiths and Army batter, the winners pulled the fielding game to the contest.

Army & Navy hit 10 hits—5 in the first, 3 in the second, 2 in the third, 1 in the fourth, 1 in the fifth, 1 in the sixth, 1 in the seventh, 1 in the eighth, 1 in the ninth.

Easy Win

Army Headquarters walloped Alberta Poultry Producers 2-13 in a Men's Intermediate Commercial Football league game last night.

Rampaging Dodgers Seek Seventh Straight Victory

Those rampaging Dodgers will be shooting for their eleventh win in 12 starts when they meet Eskimos at Renfrew tonight in a Big Four Baseball league game.

When the clubs swing into action tonight—first ball to be thrown at 8:00 o'clock—Jim Ryan's league-leading Dodgers will boast a five game lead over Eskimos and Calgary Purty.

And chances are that Ryan will dominate Vern Callinan to work on the mound. Callinan was the possessor of the best win-loss record last season—2-1 and 41.

Versatile Edward Morris, manager of Eskimos, will probably send his ace, Butler, Jerry Seaman, an effort to stop the high-flying Dodgers.

Rake have yet to score a victory over their city rivals. Dodgers have won all three encounters between them.

Eksa have been plagued with third base troubles. Ever since rookie Johnny Clark was released several days ago, Norman, Seaman, Earl Ealey and Don Wynn have all worked at the hot corner.

Third base isn't the only headache for Morris.

Huffeider Marsh Johnson broke his leg in last Friday's encounter with Purty in Calgary and is expected to remain out of the line-up for at least six weeks.

PRAY FROM THE SHOWERS

Every member of the Dodge line-up has performed in great fashion—including the rookie. The new second base combination of Don Bailey and Mike McNeer have proved to be a tower of strength on defence and if Sunday's games mean anything, the two have found their "batting eye".

Jetney Event At Highlands

Highlands Lawn Bowling Club will hold a Jetney competition tonight at 8:00.

First half of the official season will start Thursday night at 7:30 with mixed doubles pairs competing for the Hudson Bay trophy.

McDonald Appeal Apparently Nixed

The Amateur Athletic Union of Canada has apparently thrown out the Edmonton Boys' Boxing Club's protest regarding a decision handed out in the recent dominion finals to Edmonton Bantam Golden Glove Bud McDonald.

BMBC coach Alf Jones issued the protest, claiming that McDonald, 16, was "too young" to be in the club first permanent member, "too young" to be in the club first permanent member, "too young" to be in the club first permanent member.

Meanwhile, Tansey and his cohorts are formulating plans for the construction of their own gym.

Calgary Interests Said Seeking WFL Franchise

Calgary interests have applied for a Western International Baseball League franchise to go into effect next year. It was learned reliably yesterday.

According to the informant—a well known Calgary baseball figure—the Cowtown bid was particularly well received, with the men behind the Vancouver and Victoria entries in the class B Western International circuit being especially keen to add a Calgary team.

At the same time it's understood the Californians already have made it a condition that Edmonton be prevailed upon to take up a WFL franchise.

Otherwise it's no dice where Calgary is concerned.

Current members of the WFL are, in addition to Vancouver and Victoria, are Salem, Spokane, Tacoma, Tri-Cities, Yakima and Wenatchee.

Entry of Edmonton and Calgary into the ranks of organized professional baseball would send the death knell of the semi-professional Big Four Inter-City league, comprising Dodgers and Eskimos in Edmonton, Purty and Ruffin in Calgary.

It is more than 25 years since either city boasted a franchise in organized baseball.

Both were members of the old Western Canada league, later switched to the ill-fated Northwest circuit.

Lefty' Pettit Has Arm Ache

BALTIMORE, May 30 (AP)—The worried Pittsburgh Pirates were assured yesterday there was nothing permanently wrong with the pitching arm of young Paul Pettit in whom they have $100,000 invested.

That was about all the Pirates and Pettit, out of Dr. George Bennett after a two-hour examination. But it should be enough to hold the 19-year-old southpaw he could go back to pitching.

It was after throwing a curve two weeks ago while pitching for the Pirates that he was hurt on the elbow," the big Californian youngster said.

Pirates' signing of Pettit after his graduation from Nabonne high school near Los Angeles attracted $100,000 was believed to be the most given an untried rookie.

Local 'Punters' See King's Plate

A number of Edmontonians were at the grand opening of the new edition to watch as McGill won the famed King's Plate.

The winners got cracking in the third inning with four runs, and followed that barrage with three more in the fourth and sixth, two in the fifth and six in the seventh and final frame.

Bob Downey, Jim Pruden and Herb West paced the Oilers at the plate, pitcher Ken LaBracche landed Canada's five hits.

Royals met Canucks at Diamond Park tonight and RCAF entered South Side at RCAF diamond.

PITCHERS SPARK DRIVE

from the sixth out the Phils were in when Sawyer took them over July 6, 1948, after only a few months of training. Toronto Maple Leafs in the International League.

That contagious drive—pennant fever—has hardly gripped his Philly club.

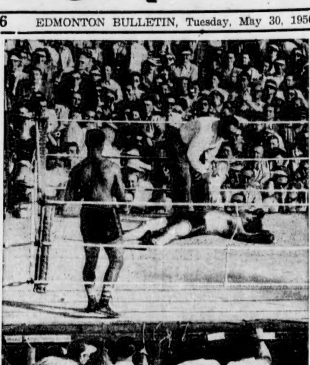

"It's just," explains the affable Sawyer, "the boys are just struggling along."

Struggling along? 22 victories, 13 defeats, 625 percentage, and five wins in their last six games.

"It takes a great team to win a pennant," Sawyer is quoted.

"And these boys are not winning."

Martin struck out 11, bringing his total for the season to 23 in 13 innings.

Doby Tops In American

CHICAGO, May 30 (AP)—Outfielder Larry Doby of Cleveland today won his third straight game as an American league batting lead by exactly as many points.

This came about as runner-up, Paul Lehner, of Philadelphia, dropped 23 points from 411 to 385. Last Monday, Lehner trailed Doby by only four points. Now he leads by 17 points.

Sam Mele of Washington holds third place with 372, a drop of 17 points.

'Lady' Champ At Pavilion

According to belief, this is a man's world.

But there will be plenty of doubt left in the minds of grunting and grunting fans who attend to night's card at the Stock Pavilion.

For Mildred Burke, world female boxing champ from Kansas City, is slated to grapple it out with Columbus, Ohio's Miss Weston, in the main exhibition of promoter Al Oeming's card.

Miss Burke, five times the scales at 140 pounds and is well known for her scientific style of wrestling. She has held the world title for the past 10 years.

Her opponent, Miss Weston, packs 145 pounds and has acquired a reputation of being a "villain".

The second main exhibition will feature Al (Mr. Murder) Mills, the Camrose mauler, and Edmonton's Stu Hart.

Hart and Mills have met twice before, and each time the 225-pound Mr. Murder stepped out of the ring as a winner.

The semi-stardom will feature Lou Newman, from Victoria, B.C., and Seattle's Johnny Valentine, in a 45 minute two-out-of-three falls contest.

The preliminary will get under way at 8:30 with Edmonton's Tex Winks tussling with Nick Elch of Chicago.

One of Edmonton fans favorites, Pat McGill, who is recovering from an injury, will officiate the bouts.

That WIL Story

Elsewhere in the sports section it will be noted that Calgary baseball interests are reported to have made application for a Western International League franchise. If all goes well, reports say, the Cowtown, once home of Joe Devine's bashing Bronks, will be back in organized baseball by the 1951 season.

But there's at least one whopping catch to that. "If all goes well" reference: the baseball enthusiasts along Eighth Avenue will have to make the WIL, unless Edmonton also climbs on the bandwagon. And thereby hangs a tale.

It seems that John Ducey, certain to be smack dab in the middle of any Edmonton move to crack the WIL, isn't at all impressed with the sincerity of any overtures that may have been made by president Bob Abel's class-B loop.

Last night Ducey referred to the story of of Calgary as "very interesting."

"The same time he made it clear that Edmonton, insofar as he is concerned, would be prepared to back on with the WIL only if what he called "the normal commitments" were demanded by the coast circuit.

"Several of the clubs in the Western International League are having a rough time of it at the gate. The men who run the league are therefore, looking for greener pastures," Ducey explained.

"Sure, they'd like to come into Edmonton and Calgary. And why not? These are good baseball centres ... among the best in the west."

However, it appears the idea in the back of the minds of Western International League owners is to transfer a franchise in each case to the Alberta cities.

Not only this. But the men presently operating the franchise would tag right along. They would aim for a fresh start in new surroundings. Hopes are high that while it might have mattered less to the fans, say in Salem, the natives of Edmonton would break down the gates trying to get in.

Ditto Calgary, where the Wenatchee franchise, as an example, might be held down.

Obviously the Edmonton and Calgary men who have been battling to get the ball going would be the worst kind of soft-touches to permit this to happen.

And Ducey, whatever about Sam Timmins, Harold Cundall and like Californians, doesn't intend that it shall, at least not at Renfrew Park.

"There'll be no transferring of a franchise to Edmonton," he said with considerable heat. "Neither will we pay for a franchise."

Failing to win their point with regards to transferring a franchise, it's Ducey's belief that the WIL interests might try to sell their holdings, as the next best way out.

But they won't be dealing them out to Ducey ... he sez.

Which brings us to what he meant by "the normal commitments," as mentioned earlier.

"The National Association of Minor Professional Leagues requires that a new team deposit a sum equal to one-half the monthly salary limit of the league in which it is to operate," the man who is lessee of Renfrew Park and general manager of Eskimos, of the Big Four League, explained.

"Also it's necessary to pay the league entry fee."

And this is so far as Ducey will go when, and if, the question of Edmonton being taken in by the WIL, reaches the discussion stage.

"Baseball has been built up locally by Edmonton people," he insists. "Any Edmonton team in organized baseball should have local ownership."

In the meantime, one gathers he thinks both Edmonton and Calgary can be played hard to get. The inference is that the WIL needs the Alberta cities more than they need the shaky WIL.

Great Riding Feat By Ted Atkinson

NEW YORK, May 30.—(AP)—Ted (The Slasher) Atkinson yesterday staged a spectacular one-man riding show at Belmont Park, hooding home five straight winners before he was beaten by a neck in the seventh race.

A better, parlaying a $2 wager on the 34-year-old former Toronto jockey in the five races, would have cleaned up $131.61, plus a few pennies.

Counting his victory on Earl Terry, his last mount Saturday, the string yesterday was a record of six straight winners.

Race-goers recalled a similar feat by Atkinson at Belmont in 1944. Atkinson rode winners in the last two races Sept. 33 and the first five the next day for a streak of seven.

Yesterday's rain-drenched crowd of 91,400 gave the slasher a tremendous ovation when he urged

Barfoot Boy under the wire first in the five races, including a mutuel of $22.10.

Before that, Atkinson took a second-place finish in the eighth race, Puff, ($81.90) in the first and Scotch Wire ($81.90) in the second.

Atkinson's last race was in the fourth and fifth, respectively.

This was No. 5 for the day, and Barfoot Boy returned a straight mutuel of $22.10.

BROWNS GO IT 'ALONE' AS DR. TRACY QUITS

ST. LOUIS, May 30.—(AP)—Dr. David F. Tracy, New York psychologist, said yesterday he is severing his connection with St. Louis Browns.

Dr. Tracy was hired by the American league ball club last spring to boost the players' confidence and morale through the application of psychology. He was engaged after the Browns finished seventh in the American league last year. Today they are in last place.

Dr. Tracy blamed "lack of co-operation from the management" for his failure to help the club. Club officials declined comment.

Old Fishing Hole Draws Its Fans

SCHOOL IS PRISON when summer skies smile over "Olds Creek" and dark waters ripple with flash of fish. This pair will yearn inside school room walls for another

Ambassadors Bring Thanks Of Winnipeg

Winnipeg's "thank you" to the citizens of Edmonton was delivered personally today to civic and government officials by two good-will ambassadors.

A World War Two veteran Ted Birch whose home is half under water in Fort Garry and a flooded-out farmer Bruce McKenzie from the Red River valley arrived in the city by air Tuesday morning.

"We want to express to the people of Edmonton, Winnipeg's grateful thanks for all they have done on behalf of the flood victims," they said.

CROSS CANADA

Flood relief officials chose the two-man team to carry the message from Ontario to the coast. They have already visited eastern cities and will leave here tonight for Vancouver.

Winnipeg is now entering its third phase in the flood battle, they said. First was diking, then evacuation now the most important, rehabilitation.

"With the help we have received our spirits are good and we are prepared to rebuild with confidence," they are accompanied on the trip by Ken Black of the Winnipeg Press.

Months' About June

Things I like about the month of June, now virtually on our doorstep: (1) June is payday. (2) June usually has a lot of rain, so that a guy with a garden can get out of working in the garden. (3) June is romantic. A whole bunch of guys get married and are then in the same fix as us married guys. (4) June is the month before we get two weeks summer-time in Edmonton. (5) June is the month before my holidays.

Hidden jewel revealed item: Everybody in town is saying: "Never knew the Macdonald hotel looked so nice until they tore down that row of buildings on the south side of Jasper avenue."

The brothers Howard and Eddie Watson, Tofield hardware merchants, are visiting the old town. The Watsons tell me there's a suppressed excitement around Tofield these days with a big oil exploration program in full swing just a few miles out of town.

It would seem only justice if a big oil strike should be made around Tofield. For decades Tofield was a leading coal mining centre. Coal seems out of style these days.

Manager McDiarmid of the Imperial Bank building branch here told me yesterday the new bank building will have the main floor at street level.

"Climbing a bunch of steps into a bank isn't modern," says the manager.

Just another case of taking steps in the right direction.

Elegant Elsie can't understand why they call the men in those cages in the bank, tellers.

Elsie says she once asked one of them how much money her boy friend had in his savings account and he wouldn't tell her.

The Clarkes Drop In

Late but very welcome visitors to the news room last night (or was it this morning?), were the brothers James T. and Robert Clarke.

James was elected president of the Alberta Pharmaceutical Association yesterday. He's from Calgary and a very nice fellow just the same.

Robert hails from Grande Prairie. He's mighty proud of his twins, Donna and Danny, entered in The Bulletin's Best Baby Contest. Bob also had three champions from the great northland. The Bulletin's Golden Gloves tournament last spring. Sure was nice seeing you boys.

Printer Guy Deaton has a complaint as follows: "Guy stood on the curb in front of The Bulletin office at 4:15 yesterday afternoon waiting for a Highland bus. Highlanders trotted whizzed right along, half empty and continued to whizz right past printer Guy Deaton. He was a pretty sore guy," that Deaton fellow.

A friendly goodnight to all and especially to people in Grande Prairie.

Ducey Struck Out By Film On Williams

Baseball promoter John Ducey is beginning to wonder for whom he works.

Along with his big league baseball pictures, Ducey offered to show a southern organization a couple of reels of film depicting exploits of a baseballer, films he obtained from the provincial publicity branch.

The audience admired the excellent photography, especially the close-up of a baseballer, in fact everything, including the quality of how a travelling called "Astoria in Alberta" came out of a can labelled "Tom Williams."

Assistant City Engineer P. L. Debeney sees nothing bright about this.

Somebody moved barricades at south end of 105 street bridge, drove a car over concrete that hadn't set. Base of the paving was damaged and marks left on the surface.

The Winnipeg Free Press is growing, and just to help it grow a little larger, W. D. Haight, manager of the provincial publicity branch, will send a car over concrete that hadn't set.

The increase, termed "seasonal," in the spring reaction to a shortage of hogs on the market.

PORK PRICES WILL JUMP

Retall pork prices are expected to go up soon in Edmonton.

Though the exact amount is not known, wholesale pork prices will increase between 4 and 6 cents per hundredweight.

The price increase will be general in the prairie provinces, according to wholesalers.

Club Donates New Quarters

Edmonton Cosmopolitan Club presented a new headquarters building to the Edmonton District Council of the Boy Scouts Association, yesterday afternoon.

The result of six years work in gathering funds, the building is a "white round object striking through the city."

Another new office are always referred to as "ah."

Back in the old days of sail ships were served to sail as well as their canvas was trimmed properly and it had to be wrinkle-free.

The same with women said. Cutty Sark never telling the story they never sail as well down Jasper if they have a wrinkle in their dress or nylon.

The front fender and bumper of the car and the right side and rear end of the bus were damaged. Bus passengers were unhurt.

POST OFFICE TO HOLIDAY

Holiday hours will be observed by the post office on June 1, the King's birthday.

A special meeting of City Council finance committee endorsed Alton Lawton's motion to engage John E. Wallace, architect of St. Louis Zoological Garden to give a full report on location and possible costs.

New, approval of the full council must be obtained at the next meeting, June 12.

Mr. Wallace has agreed to spend a week in Edmonton studying possible locations, and then make a layout of the one selected, for a fee of $1000 plus travelling expenses.

The meeting received a comprehensive report resulting from a earlier meeting between Parks Superintendent Stanley Patterson and Town Planner Noel Dunt and Prof. W. H. Brown of the university zoology department.

The report detailed seven different sites, including the old Fort Macleod, White Mts. Creek, Mill Creek, Waterton, east Forest Heights and Laurier Park.

Asked for his opinion of Borden Park, Mr. Wallace said it was a good site, but it should be kept as a zoo, it's a mistake to mix it up with playgrounds.

Addition to Soap Eases Laundry Job

By Bea Thrifty

"With a glad eye we bid farewell to tattle-tale grey! One of today's boons to the housewife is a new test tube which for years sat unnoticed on laboratory shelves.

It has a tongue-twister name . . . sodium carboxymethyl cellulose . . . but its task is simpler than that. The chemical compound makes clothes cleaner and brighter in laundry tubs across the country.

4891 5215 2-10

Addition of this gem to your wash-tub soap cuts washing time in half and doubles effectiveness of the job.

Now the manufacturer of your laundry soap or soap detergent is the chap who adds the CMC . . . not you.

So next soap-buying day check for this compound!

Yesterday I went a-dolling to a breath-takingly lovely new Edmonton home . . . and am I ever impressed!

It's a 10-room, rambling bungalow completely planned for utmost convenience, comfort and beauty.

Somehow I thought you'd be interested in particularly caught my flighly fancy.

To eliminate door-swinging space several closets closed with doors of the same material as leather-type fabric fashioned to resemble soft drapery.

Corrugated in soft-looking folds, the doors are practical, smooth-working and very, very extra-special swish.

A tremendous basement recreation room was painted in particularly beautiful sand-blended beige, floored in rubber filling in a natural-colored stone pattern, bordered with a giant stone fireplace . . . ah me.

A large original painting graced the beautifully carved mantelpiece in the spacious living room . . . an oil painting highlighted by a devious bit of electrical hi-boy.

A bright light on the mantelpiece reflected and shimmered on the richly colored painting . . . 5 x 10 Size 6 complete taken 2 1/2 yards 25-inch, 1/2 yd. contrast.

This pattern, say to use, is sew, is tested for fit. Has complete illustrated instructions.

Send twenty-five cents (25c) in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly, name, address, style number.

Send order to Anne Adams, care of Edmonton Bulletin, Pattern Dept., 60 Front Street W., Toronto 1A, Ontario. Please allow a week or ten days for delivery.

Important announcement! My new Anne Adams Summer Pattern Book is ready! Send twenty-five cents more, first to have this collection of styles that make sewing a pleasure. Vacation clothes for all. Plus complete directions and diagrams on how to make two bath sarongs (for Mr. and Mrs.).

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Should Wife Frequent A Dive to Please Husband

Dear Miss Dix: How can I be a good sport and still be a good and decent mother?

My husband runs with a wild crowd and wants me to do as the others do, go to cheap joints and drink until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. Aren't parents supposed to set any example for good, noble days to their children? Am I prude and old-fashioned to object to going with my husband to such places? Should I go to the where he because I will please my husband?

ANSWER: Being a good mother is a lot more important than being a good sport. If your sportsmanlike is measured by the amount of liquor you can drink. Nor is a woman called upon to lower her standards of conduct to show her love for her husband.

DON'T BE TOO PRUDISH

Of course, it doesn't do for a woman who has a gay, pleasure-loving husband to be too particular. He must have his fun and as long as that consists of innocent fun, his wife should go along with him, not when he insists upon her accompanying him to cheap dives and drinking part in drinking with him until morning she does well to refuse.

No good comes of that to either one. No woman has ever retained her husband's love by getting drunk with him, but many a wife has kept her husband's respect by refusing to do so.

At for the value of the example that parents set for their children, it is the most important thing in the world. It is the influence that molds their characters. It is the thing that shapes their lives. All of the preachments go for naught. It is the things they see their fathers and mothers do that they imitate.

It is especially important that children's mothers should set them a good example. They must believe in her as the embodiment of every virtue, and when they lose this faith they have no anchor to hold to.

Social workers tell us that when children find out that their mother is immoral, or if they have a mother who gets drunk, it simply shatters their whole morale and they go to pieces themselves.

So set your children a good example. If they have a father who sets them a bad one, it is all the more important that you should keep your standards high.

Controversy Over the Role Of Husbands in Housework

By Josephine Lowman

There are certain controversial subjects, in conversation and in writing.

The letters poured in and poured in, after a column which discussed the subject of whether or not the husband should help with the work at home. I have already presented several different reader viewpoints since the original column.

A reader says: "You say, that when a woman has only a house and a child to care for, it shouldn't be too difficult. I am certain that you could not possibly have meant a new baby who cries most of the day and night, and a mother who is not strong enough yet, or accustomed enough yet, to all of the things that will go with caring for a baby, especially when she gets little or no sleep."

I was writing about normal human beings. I cannot imagine a man who would not be glad to help in such a situation or one who would not think of helping without prodding.

The consensus of opinion of my readers seems to be:

1. When the wife works outside of the home it is a fifty-fifty proposition at best.

2. That some women do impose upon their husbands and are quite spoiled.

3. That men and women who are not pithy in and help when the situation requires it are selfish and are damaging their own marital happiness.

4. That there can be no definite division of labor in marriage. Health and temperament and conditions alter each situation.

Child Should Decide Which Hand to Use

10 EDMONTON BULLETIN, Tuesday, May 30, 1950

You'll notice when your baby is old enough to handle toys that he will be quite happy no matter which of his hands is engaged. He will clasp his fist around a rattle and it will make a satisfying noise as he toses his hand in the air.

By four months of age he will be using both hands and wave it more purposefully and he will stop and mouth the rattle and then shake it back and forth. He will still not mind, much, whether it is in the right or left hand.

By the end of the first year, instead of the end of the second, he will have established his own personal handedness and if a toy is put in his left hand he will change it to the right or the opposite if he is left-handed.

It is important for the parent to realize that handedness is an inherent characteristic. While the child is ambidextrous during the early months, it is essential for his own dexterity in writing and for other handwork and for the sake of his fluidity of speech, that he be allowed to develop his own handedness undisturbed.

LET HIM CHOOSE

There are children who are sufficiently right and left-handed, so that such force and pressure by the parents will encourage them to use the right hand though it is not the natural one. The strongly left-handed person cannot be so pressured. But, it should be the aim of the parents to keep out of this right and left-handed controversy and allow the child the choice of whichever hand he is inspired to use.

The use of the right hand is far more than a social custom, it is the hand which functions because the majority of persons are right-handed. This means that the dominant left-brain sends impulses to action to the right hand. In the left-handed person the right-brain is dominant and the left hand responds to the impulses.

To change an individual's handedness is to send these impulses in a roundabout instead of a straight path and thus make for hesitancy, awkwardness and a loss of efficiency.

Our latest No. 45 "Left-handedness" may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Pete's Pessimism Saves The Contract

10 EDMONTON BULLETIN, Tuesday, May 30, 1950

By Oswald Jacoby

"I wonder," said Pessimist Pete, "what is the most prudent way to play this hand."

"Open an umbrella," suggested one of his opponents. "The roof must start to leak while you're playing it."

Pete ignored the advice and played the hand intently. He was looking for a way to make his contract against even the worst breaks. Pete is the sort of player who enjoys giving up unnecessary tricks to make sure of his contract.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Taurus' usual calm and peacefulness is now on trial today and will be needed to stabilize and guide others' thinking. We often aid others by quiet example.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—You must be unusual keen, intuitive today (friendly planets influence), but you must be sure to keep your feet on the ground. Do not go far out on the experimental.

June 22 to July 21 (Cancer)—Adapt to the new and creative ideas. Do not keep practicing the old. Try to reach for the moon but do work for a reasonable objective. No secret will be ever lost.

August 22 to September 21 (Virgo)—Should be receptive period for wisdom, peace, research, whether it be medical, art or any of the sciences. Don't worry if you more laborious tasks seem to have little fruit.

September 22 to October 21 (Libra)—After the duties, routine affairs must be done. Do not let a day go by without a quarrel with A. challenge? Perhaps you can meet it.

It was therefore easy to drive out West's queen with dummy's Jack. South's own ten of diamonds then provided the ninth trick.

It is interesting to note that South was sure to make his ninth trick by playing the ace of the queen's small diamond. The jack in dummy, after which it would be easy to knock out the remaining top diamonds.

If East failed to follow suit on the second round of diamonds, South could play his ten to force out one of West's honors. Then to lead toward dummy's jack later on.

If both opponents followed to the second round of diamonds, the suit would surely break, and South would make a trick by sheer strength.

A less pessimistic player might have finessed the jack of diamonds at the second trick. Then no additional diamond trick would be won, and the contract would be defeated.

Oil Pipeline To Winnipeg Is Planned

TORONTO, May 30.—(CP)—A 75-mile 36-inch pipeline costing some $250,000 will be built from Gretna, Man., to Winnipeg. Imperial Oil Ltd. announced today it will move oil from its Imperial pipeline now being built from Edmonton to Gretna.

The line will carry some 10,000 barrels of oil a day when completed this fall or by the spring of 1951 and will have a capacity of 30,000 barrels a day. It will be owned by a newly-chartered subsidiary of Imperial Oil, the Winnipeg Pipe Line Company Ltd., incorporated in Manitoba, and is the final link in an oil transportation system which will move Alberta oil to Winnipeg.

ROUTE SURVEYED
Imperial Oil announces that route of the line has been surveyed and options for right-of-way are being obtained. Initial work has been delayed by the Manitoba floods but extra crews are planned to make up lost time.

A pumping station will be built at Gretna adjacent to Interprovincial Pipe Line Company's terminal station. Pipe has been ordered in Britain and a contract for construction of the line will be awarded shortly.

No public financing is contemplated by Imperial Oil for the new company.

Red-Led Japs Attack Yanks

TOKYO May 30.—(AP)—Communist Japanese today attacked four United States soldiers in the first public fight of the allied occupation.

The battle touched off other attacks at American military posts. At least eight Japanese were arrested.

Demonstrators, gathered in Imperial Park for a Communist rally, showed the American military observers with rocks. One soldier was knocked down.

U.S. CAPTAIN
One American was Capt. C. V. Clark of the Tokyo provost marshal's office.

One witness said the incident began when members of a Communist youth group marched a picket line from a Japanese plainclothesman who was taking notes on speeches. The anti-American demonstration appears to be the first fruit of criticism of Japan's Communist up to the Communist International Communist central agency. The Communist Party of Japan has been trying to work within the framework of the occupation.

Russia Ready To Talk Wheat Sales To West

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 30.—(UP)—Russia has notified the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe that it is willing to negotiate on the sale of grain to Western Europe.

Gunnar Myrdal, ECE executive secretary, announced the Russian move at a press conference. He said he regarded it as the first step toward breaking a deadlock in East-West trade.

The Soviet decision followed a visit by Myrdal to Moscow and capitals of Western Europe in an effort to break the trade deadlock before the opening of the ECE trade meeting here tomorrow.

Myrdal said the ECE is the only UN organization "fully functioning" asked for Russia's offer was in reply to a proposal he made in Moscow May 20 that the ECE secretariat prepare a concrete plan for negotiation of a grain agreement.

He proposed that a draft take into account the experience of the international wheat conference and the various individual governments and be submitted to all interested governments.

The Russian reply, delivered May 22, said the government "is ready, as in the past, to give its support to the development of intra-European trade on terms which safeguard the mutual interests of the parties concerned."

Secret Evacuation Plan Made Public At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Man., May 30.—(BUP)—"Operation Blackbox," code name for emergency wholesale evacuation plans if the major portions of the city had been flooded, was made public today.

With the water receding rapidly today and the danger over, the army revealed that the unused plan would have striped the city of all but some 75,000 able-bodied men.

The plan was to have been rushed into effect if the flood water above 225 feet, a point at which the major parts of the city of 200,000 would have become uninhabitable.

BEYOND 200 FEET
The flood, however, never went beyond 200 feet and was approaching a level five feet below that mark.

"Operation Blackbox," a code name used in the last war for possible invasion of England, was regarded by 60 local civilian leaders.

Although the over-all operation was never started, the medical section of it was completed and this included evacuation of most of the patients in Winnipeg hospitals to hospitals out of the danger area.

At about one third of the city's population evacuated voluntarily, if Operation Blackbox had come into effect, the army estimated that it would have evacuated another 40,000 in the first five days after the plan started.

Winnipeg and St. Boniface were largely blank in normal. Three bridges still were closed, but a fourth—Main Street bridge over the Red River—was opened last night. Four subways were still out of service.

In the suburbs, fast emerging from filthy water, municipal cleanup squads were pumping basements and discharging once-flooded rooms, committees were assessing the damage, which has been estimated at $100,000,000 and up.

TO SERVE ANYWHERE
Army flood control headquarters would have had authority from the provincial government to compel able-bodied men to serve anywhere they were needed in Greater Winnipeg. The army said there would have been no martial law, however.

It was estimated that apart from personnel engaged in flood fighting in the army, Red Cross and other agencies, a nominal roll of 15,000 trained workers would have been available to help carry out the disaster operation. These included mechanics, clerks, stenographers and others.

MEDICAL SECTION
Although the over-all operation was never started, the medical section of it was completed and this included evacuation of most of the patients in Winnipeg hospitals to hospitals out of the danger area.

Power Shovel Death Accident
Louis Grenier, 50, of Cadomin died from injuries suffered when he was pinned Friday by a power shovel, RCMP reported today in Edmonton.

Death in the Coal Branch area was accidental, a coroner's jury ruled Saturday. Grenier, a bachelor, was a coalman man on the power shovel, working in a coal mine in a Cadomin home. There were no witnesses to the accident.

Heavy Rains Do Not Raise Flood Level

WINNIPEG, May 30.—(CP)—Brilliant sunshine today lashed up the last traces of two fierce showers that spilled almost a half-inch into the Red River Valley watershed. The flooded river's drop was apparently unaffected.

At 100 p.m. the level stood at 25.75 feet—the lowest mark since May 8. Still almost eight feet above flood-stage and almost two feet above the flood level of 1948, the river was down 4.4 feet from its crest May 18.

A few scattered showers were forecast today but the weathermen said the fast-fading ground now is capable of soaking up a lot of moisture.

Meanwhile, the return of evacuees who fled the worst flood in a century continued unabated. A newspaper survey indicated some 2,000 persons had returned to assist in cleanup work. Many other thousands, the vanguard of 100,000 who left at the urging of flood-control headquarters, came back to their high-and-dry dwellings.

CIVILIANS TAKE OVER
The transfer of control of rehabilitation from the army to civilian personnel was to be completed tomorrow. Many troops called in at the height of the emergency had already gone home.

Winnipeg and St. Boniface were largely blank in normal. Three bridges still were closed, but a fourth—Main Street bridge over the Red River—was opened last night. Four subways were still out of service.

In the suburbs, fast emerging from filthy water, municipal cleanup squads were pumping basements and discharging once-flooded rooms, committees were assessing the damage, which has been estimated at $100,000,000 and up.

LIQUOR LOOT LEADS LOOTER INTO TROUBLE

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.—(AP)—A burglar got in but failed to get out of the Sunken Gardens Restaurant. Police said he sampled too much of his loot.

An employee started opening the front door this morning when a voice called out: "Let me out." The employee, instead, called police.

Inside they found Robert Graham, 34, seated at a table with four bottles of whiskey. He denied off before police could question him.

Civil Aviation Group Meets

MONTHLY, May 30.—(AP)—Internal problems ranked high on the program today as nearly 400 pilots were called into session for the fourth annual assembly of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

Behind the pomp of a formal world conference of government representatives, delegates were prepared to debate on whether to maintain ICAO headquarters in Montreal and realignment of the ICAO council, the 21-nation body which has permanently.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent arranged to attend the opening ceremonies.

Speechmaking and organization of the working group will take most of the week. Then the assembly will get down to the job of furthering "safe and orderly" development of air commerce through establishment of common standards, encouraging improvement of flying facilities, avoiding discrimination and "promoting safety."
